A Message from the President

Bill Moss

At the July 15th Paint & Powder Club Board meeting...

President Bud Piff officially handed the Presidential gavel to me. I will take the liberty of speaking for all of the membership as I thank Bud for an outstanding two years as our President. Under his leadership, our club's events - the Fall Outings, the Christmas Parties, the President's Balls, and of course, our signature events, the Shows - were extremely successful. In fact, while Bud was President, both annual shows raised significant funds for our selected charities. Thank you Bud!

In looking back over the past two years, we lost four of our beloved members. We said goodbye to Jeff Plum, Carl Parks, Mickey Webster and Sam Cook. Our hearts go out to Janet, Carl's family, Nancy and our beloved Bernie. The Club is your extended family. We are here for you and we love you all!

Moving forward...

Among the significant issues before us are (1) increasing membership, (2) increasing revenues and balancing our budget, (3) moving the date of the Show to the fall, and (4) rethinking our events schedule for the "good of the Club" (a concept that I borrowed from Bud). I also plan to establish an ad hoc committee to develop a Mission Statement. Defining one will allow us to move forward on a clear path.

I plan to bring the leadership skills I developed as the CEO at Linwood to the Paint & Powder Club. As we make decisions for the good of the Club, we will not always come to consensus. However, I will be the watchdog of our decisions during my tenure as President and will be guided by two very fundamental concepts... (1) Do the decisions we make advance the Club's mission? and (2) Do the decisions make good business sense?

I consider my election as President of the Paint & Powder Club an honor and will treat it as such. I am energized and excited about what is to come and I invite you to join me in my commitment to make our Club even better than it already is. I will be calling upon existing Board members to assist me and, equally as important, I will be calling upon newer Club members to get involved. Become re-energized and join me as we make our Club a better organization for ALL members.

Did you notice the upper left corner of this page? We currently have 111 members in the Club. I would bet that if I asked each member what the Paint & Powder Club's mission is, I would get 111 different answers.

Please let me know if you would like to participate in an ad hoc committee to review what we've got and craft a new and improved Mission Statement for the Club. New members are encouraged to participate. - Bill

About The Maryland Conservatory of Music

Maryland Conservatory of Music is a non-profit organization with a mission to offer children and adults quality music training and experiences that are rewarding and accessible. All students are considered for a scholarship based on merit and need.

MCM offer private lessons (with weekly Repertoire Classes and monthly Guest Artist Series), musicianship classes (theory, history, ear training, open topics), ensembles (choirs, chamber music, percussion groups, jazz combos), and a Community Performance Program (Students will be performing throughout the community in a variety of performance situations).

Whether a student, parent, teacher, board member, donor, or volunteer, we are a mix of people involved in the greatness of music through learning, mentoring, and supporting.

MCM's mission is provide quality and accessible music training and experiences that develop creativity, self confidence, and achievement.

About The Red Devils

Since 2002, The Red Devils has invested in excess of $1.8 million in services to help more than 4,000 breast cancer families cope with the economic and emotional strain of living with the disease. The Red Devils has partnerships with 40 hospitals or other facilities throughout Maryland. Their medical staff and social workers refer patients to business partners who provide a variety of services at no charge to the patient. Service providers authorized to respond to patients' needs include van, sedan, and taxi companies; professional house cleaning franchises; Moveable Feast, and catering companies; respite and home care agencies; pharmacies; and complementary therapies practitioners.

Each year, nearly 200,000 people in America receive the life-altering diagnosis of breast cancer. In Maryland, more than 4,000 families cope with that reality annually. The Red Devils is a nonprofit organization based in Baltimore whose mission is to fund services that improve the quality of life for breast cancer patients and their families.

Appreciative Charities Receive Checks From The Paint & Powder Club

The Paint & Powder Club continued its 120-year tradition of raising money to support worthy charities. At its Board of Governors meeting on July 15th, President Bud Piff presented The Maryland Conservatory of Music and The Red Devils each a check totaling over $31,000.

Duke Thompson, President of the Maryland Conservatory of Music receives a check from Bud Piff, Outgoing President of the Paint & Powder Club.

Bud Piff presents a check to Jan Wilson, Executive Director of The Red Devils.

A Letter to Mr. Bud Piff from Dr. Duke Thompson

July 18, 2013

Paint & Powder Club, Past President
Mr. Frank (Bud) S. Piff
272 E. Padonia Road
Timonium, Maryland 21093

Dear Mr. Piff,

I do not think that we can express our gratitude and thanks to you and The Paint & Powder Club adequately in a letter. I will, however, try. Please share this with members as you see fit.

Under your presidency of the past two years, the notion by P&P to adopt two charities (MCM and Linwood Center) on an every-other-year basis (along with another charity each year) was brought up. This was discussed in numerous meetings and forums and it was voted to adopt this practice.

To be supported by such a good group of individuals and by such a wonderful organization in this way makes my journey over the past twelve years to establish, develop, and maintain MCM extremely fulfilled. I can't express completely how much this means to me and to our board and our parents, our teachers, our students.

Many of the students at their young age do not truly understand why they are able to study with such good teachers in a scholarship position – whether it be private lessons or in our Music Together Program for infants and toddlers and those with learning disabilities. We do let them know about P&P and our other supporters and parents/caregivers tell them of the good fortune that has come to their family. P&P has endorsed MCM with a great vote of confidence and never will this be taken for granted and always will this be seen as a great gift of support from a great organization.

On Monday, July 15, you presented the very generous check of $18,250 to MCM. These funds will be used for our programs, students, and our organization with the same love that P&P uses to raise such funds each and every year. On behalf of the entire MCM organization (board members, teachers, students, parents, partners, our public, and me), I thank you all with all of my heart.

Sincerely,

Dr. Duke Thompson, Director
Maryland Conservatory of Music
